LEGAL PROCEEDINGS BY THE BILLHOLDERS OF THE PLANTERS' & MECHANICS' BANK .- A motion to set aside an order of the Court of Fqu ty, enjoining the billholders of the Planters' & Mechanics' Bank from proceeding at law against the bank was heard yesterday morning before Judge Carpenter in Chambers. Messrs. Buist & Buist, and Whaley, Mitchell & Clancy appeared for the billholders, Messrs. Simonton & Birker for the depositors, and Me'srs. McCrady & Son for the bank. My Simonton read the order granted by the Court of Equity, and the case was opened by Mr. Mitchell for the billholders, followed by Mr. Henry Buist. Mr. bimonton replied on behalf of the depositors until the hour of adjourrment. The case will be resumed at cleven A. M. this morni g The billholders claim that they are not to be restrained from their just rights by an order favorable to one class of creditors, and have brought suit to dissolve the injunction. THEATRE.-Last evening a fashionable au dience attended the Theatre to witness Miss Annie Deland's performance of the "Widow Delmaine," in the "Serious Family," in which she displayed he usual ability. Mr. Sutton c eated a deal of laughter by his performance of "Aminidab sleek." Grey, as "Captain Murphy Maguire," was, as usual corr ect and pleasing. Annie Sutton deserves espe cial commendation for her performance of "Lady Sowerby Creamly." All the other paris were well performed.

To-night Miss Annie Teland takes her farewel benefit. She will produce the last new London sen sa'ion, entitled "Blow for Blow." It must also be remembered that the present dramatic season closes on Saturday night, and then our citizens will probably be for some time without theatrical amuse ment, and it behooves them to improve the present opportunity. Miss Deland and all the members of the company have exerted themselves to please, and we think they should be encouraged, for if our citizens really desire a new theatre, they should show by their patronage that they would liberally support a first-class theatre properly conducted. Let there be a full house to-night.

EXTENSIVE LIFE AND FIRE INSURANCE AGEN-CY .- Mr. A. H. Hayden, for many years before the war well known as one of the most prominent insurance agents of this city, hes re-established his agency on an extensive scale, and now offers to take risks for two life and five fire insurance companies, besides marine risks on cotton, rice and other produce. On of his companies, the Continental Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., has assets to the enor mous amount of $24,000,000, and the other, the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Boston, Mass., has assets to the amount of $7,000,000. Of the five fire insurance companies for which he acts, the Ætna Fire Insurance Company, of Hartf) rd, Conn., has assets to the amount of over $5,000,000, and the Hartford Fire Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conr., has assets to the amount o over $2,000,000. The others, the North American Fire Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn , the Co nnecticut Fire Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., and the : rving Fire Insurance Company, are all companies of large capital and good standing in nsurance circles. The rates and terms of all thes companies are liberal and accommodating, and Mr. Havden's own position in our business community is a sufficient guarantee of the soundness of the companies for which he acts

Mr. W. C. Courtney, of the firm of W. C. Courtney & Co., No. 9 Eoyce's wharf, will, in connection with this agency, take risks on cotton, rice and produce generally.

tions for final discharge. Granted. Ex parte C. G. Jaeger, Registrar Third Congressional District South Carolina, in re bankrupt cases pending before the late Henry Summer. The judge read the following order in bankruptcy on Wednesday last. The attention of the Bar is called toit:

Whereas, divers cases in bankruptoy were pending before Henry Summer, Fsq., deceased, late one of the Registrars in Bankruptcy of this court, at the time of his death. It is therefore ordered, that all case, pending as aforesaid, which have not since been referred to another registrar, be referred to C. G. Jaeger, Registrar, and successor of said Henry Summer, and that he proceed to execute the orders heretofore made in said cases which rem in unexecuted, except in which the execution has become impracticable by expiration of time or for other auses, and in which it is necessary to apply to the court for an amandment or modification therefor, or for special directions as to the same. It is further o dered that the personal representa tives of the said Henry Summer do turn over all the official papers, books, &c., of the deceased to his successor, the sa'd C. G. Jacger.

"What an Outrage!"

So says every one, of Corbin's bill to legislate Pillsbury and his t'cket into office; but our unhap y people have been so muco accustomed to entrages upon their sense of right, that it is almost enough, now, for an outrage to be threatened to make people duck their heads and prepare for the supposed inevi-

CLUBS AND STARS.—The following cases were from us? Is there no wrong, however glaring-no outrage on our rights, however gross, which will not be submitted to?

> It may be all very well for a conquered people to ccept the legitimate results of conquest, and it is doubtless very foolish for a prisoner of war to be kicking at the sbins of his guard; but does once conque ed mean conquered and slaves fer ever? Does submission to the conqueror involve a continuing abject giving up of every claim and shadow of right for all time? Does useless resistance to the Reconstruction acts of Congress in 1867 require us also to suffer unconstitutional State legislation to deprive us of the few rights which have been left us? think not.

We hold the right of the peop's of Charleston to be governed by representatives of their own choice to be an inalicable right under the ancient charte of the city-a right guaranteed by the State constitution-s prescriptive right hallowed by over one hun dred years' use-a part of our American liberty, as far beyond the reach of a State Legislature to impair as it is a sacred duty upon us to maintain it.

The attempt of Pillsbury and Corbin to help desperate cause, by substituting an act of the Legis lature for the legal choice of the citizens of Charleston c:n never succeed if our people are true to themselves. Let the Legisla'ure successfully invade the constitutional right of the corporators in favor of Pillsbury, and the precedent will le established for the total annihilation of our ancient liberties.

Our people should be aroused to their danger It is no longer a question between Leseaue and Pillsbury—no longer a question between Pillsbury and the Acting Board of Aldermen-not a question of purty or of to-day, but if this nefarious bill passes, it is a question between the Legislature and the whole community of Charleston, affecting the fundamental rights of the corporation for a 1 time On this quest on all parties, sects, classes and color can and will unite. Let a mass meeting of all who are opposed to legislative usurpa ion be called at once, and all join in a memorial to the Legislature who want NATIVE WINES .- In the days of spurious and almost universally adulterated liquors, the excellent native California wines are gradually becoming a favorite drink with those who wish to get a pure and genuine article. The fact that they are brought in duty free enables them to be placed on the market at a far cheaper figure than the same grade of foreign wines; and at the North they have already attained a wide and increasing popularity. Messrs C. D Ahrens & Co., corner of King and Market streets, have just received a choice consignment, to which they invite the attention of the public. GROVER & BAKER'S FAMILY SEWING MACHINES.

THE VERY HIGHEST PRIZE-THE IMPERIAL

Cross of the Legion of Honor-was conferred upon the representative of the GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINES at the Exposition Universelle, Paris 1867
The GROVER & BAKER FAMILY SEWING MA-CHIME are the only Machines that can both sew perfectly and unbroider periectly.
They sew with threads direct from the speed, and re ulie no re-winning.
Onlike other Machines, there fasten both ends of Other Machines, these fasten both ends of the seam by their own operation.

With these Machines, while slik is used upon the righter face-side of the seam, cotton may be used upon the other site. This can be done on no other stack no, and is a great saving upon all articles stitched or made up with slik.
